Welcome to Issue #17 of Joii News.

Joii's first newsletter for 2024. A lot has happened since our last newsletter back in November 2023 so we have a lot of information packed into this latest newsletter for everyone.

We plan to release a newsletter following the end of every quarter which will allow Joii to report on the developments during that period. We hope this will be a more practical approach to our current newsletter format but keep in mind that our social media accounts are also available, connect with us on facebook, instagram, youtube and linkedin.

Welcomer David Power - New CEO of Joii Limited

Well, the next chapter of Joii began in early 2024 with the transition to a new CEO.

The Board is excited to announce that David Power has taken on the role and that he is very keen to work closely with the staff to keep delivering the great outcomes Joii has been achieving over recent years.

David brings over 25 years of experience with a track record of accomplishment in senior executive roles including strategy & budget management and has consulted to some of Australia's most recognised developers including Coles Group and Leda Group.

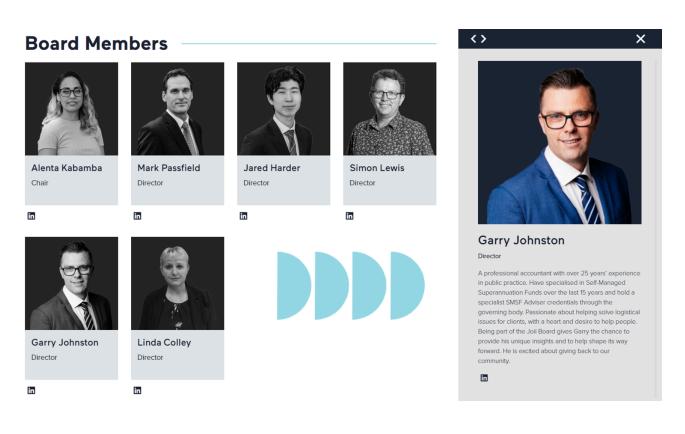

David also has extensive experience in delivering projects to the private and public sectors and has brought his extensive knowledge and experience to Joii to expand our programs to help even more disadvantaged people in 2024.

This is a great result for the future of Joii and the community and the whole team at Joii is appreciative of the effort our Directors have put into achieving this outcome.

Joii People - Partner and Children Visa Information Session

Joii People hosted a Visa Information Session for our Skilled Migrant Workers yesterday at Joii HQ to begin the process of bringing their families and partners to Australia.

This is an important stage in supporting our valued migrant teams as they are separated from their families and partners often for months.

The team at Joii People are aware of the need to support them with re-joining with their loved ones, therefore these information sessions assist to prepare and inform them on the steps they need to undertake as part of the migration process.

This ensures the amazing work being done by our migrant teams here in Australia for our business clients continues, and also for the ongoing happiness & wellbeing of our migrant staff, their families & partners.

Spotlight on Joii Clients (Extension of the Spotlight on Joii Social Enterprises)

In a follow on to the recent spotlight on Joii Social Enterprises we thought it would be a great idea to expand our focus to include our amazing business clients who have supported our trade services; and by extension the incredible work being achieved through our Social Impact programs which without their support would not be possible.

Recently our Social Impact Program Manager - Matthew Cairns took delivery of 3 new Sherlock wheelbarrows to support the work of our Joii Landscaping team.

It's through the generosity and support of companies like Silvan Australia and Sherlock wheelbarrows that we're able to continue our mission to provide opportunities that deliver long-term change and so we're grateful to them and to the many other amazing businesses that support us in helping to make positive change in the lives of the disadvantaged in our community.

Matthew Cairns - Joii Social Impact Program Manager

Congratulations to Matthew Cairns on his appointment as Joii Social Impact Program Manager earlier this year.

Since then, he has been diligently collaborating with our industry partners such as White Box Enterprises, along with local and state government bodies.

His efforts have been focused on implementing innovative training strategies and garnering support to broaden our programs. These efforts are aimed at expanding our programs to reach and uplift even more disadvantaged and vulnerable individuals especially during these challenging financial times.

Joii Social Impact Update - New Recruits

We have had some exciting developments in our Social Impact programs over the past month with a number of new participants entering the program through our employment provider partners; Mylestones Employment and Busy Ability Ex Offenders program. Despite their individual barriers, challenges & history, our participants have all joined for the same purpose, to take full advantage of the value based training and resources that Joii provides which can make available more opportunities to help improve their quality of life for a brighter future.

Congratulations New Graduates

We would like to extend our congratulations to Colin & Jacob, our newest graduates from the Second Chance Program. Colin (Left) successfully completed his training in Landscaping and Fencing and has secured employment as a forklift driver. Jacob (Right) has also successfully graduated and has since joined our bricklaying team where he is continuing to learn new skills and maintain sustainable employment for long-term positive change.

White Box Enterprise - Money and how to handle it! - A Joii tailored program.

Kelly Taylor from White Box Enterprises alongside Joii Social Impact Program Manager Matthew Cairns, joined our Second Chance Program participants at Joii HQ this month to deliver a tailored financial well-being program designed to enhance the vital wrap-around support that social enterprises like Joii offers to its employees.

This support program's objective is to empower social enterprises with the necessary resources and insights to help their employees improve their financial literacy and wellbeing ultimately leading to improved financial decision making and financial independence that can have positive long-term results.

We are pleased to partner with White Box Enterprises to deliver this initiative to our staff as financial wellbeing is a core part of our vision to provide hope and opportunity to disadvantaged and vulnerable people.
